The minimum committed monthly usage will be shown on the invoice as a further regular fee in addition to the monthly fee of the service and it can be fully used in the given month for free calls. On the other hand, the Customer shall pay this sum each month irrespective of the actual monthly usage that is the remaining part of the minimum committed monthly usage will be invoiced as the balance of usage fees even if the actual traffic of the Customer in the given month has not reached this value.
- (2) In case of call volume exceeding the minimum committed monthly usage the fee of calls above the committed limit calculated according to section (4) will appear on the invoice, in addition to the monthly fee charged for minimum committed monthly usage.

- (4) The Service Provider will determine the fee of calls originated by the Customer (call completion and usage fees in all directions) according to the tariffs included in the contract and in respect of directions not specified there according to the tariffs laid down in the GTC and in other options selected in the contract and the amount allocated for free calls will be calculated from these figures.
